

2011 Long Island Decentralization Awardees

The Huntington Arts Council, Inc. is pleased to announce the recipients of the 2011 Long Island Decentralization Grants for the Arts Program. These grants are funded through the New York State Council on the Arts via the Huntington Arts Council, Inc.

Over $164,300 was awarded among 74 recipients. Funding decisions are made by a volunteer panel of Nassau and Suffolk County artists, arts professionals and community leaders. Grant recipients represent a huge range of artistic disciplines, including music, theater, poetry, dance, media and the humanities. The goals of the program include fostering an appreciation and participation in the arts and making the arts more accessible to the people of Nassau and Suffolk Counties. More information on the program is available at the Arts Council's website, huntingtonarts.org

Congratulations to all of the 2011 Long Island Decentralization Awardees!
