GRANT OPPORTUNITIES FOR ARTS ORGANIZATIONS AND INDIVIDUAL ARTISTS

The Huntington Arts Council Announces the 2011 JPMorgan Chase Organization/Stabilization and Artist Reach Out Grant Programs

The Huntington Arts Council will begin accepting submissions in late January for the 2011 JPMorgan Chase Organization/Stabilization Regrant and Artist Reach Out Grant programs. The deadline to apply is Friday, March 4, 2011 at 5:00PM.

The Organization/Stabilization Regrant, made possible through the JPMorgan Chase Regrant Program, provides grant awards of up to $3,000 to small and mid-sized arts organizations within Nassau and Suffolk Counties. This program supports projects, services and capital expenditures that focus on strategic planning, organizational development and capacity building for organizations with a history of at least three years as a 501(c)3 organization.

The Artist Reach Out Grant provides opportunities for individual artists of all disciplines to receive no more than $2000 for the creation of projects, programs and events that support community involvement as part of the art-making process. Public participation involvement and artistic quality are essential to this grant program.

All applicants are required to attend an application seminar, seven are offered across Nassau & Suffolk Counties. The schedule is available online at www.huntingtonarts.org in the Grants for the Arts Section, includes the times, dates and locations for each of the workshops. Attendance is mandatory for ALL prospective applicants.
