

HUNTINGTON ARTS COUNCIL

Brighter lives through art.

"To the body and mind which have been cramped by noxious work or company, nature is medicinal and restores their tone. The tradesman, the attorney comes out of the din and craft of the street and sees the sky and the woods, and is a man again. In their eternal calm, he finds himself."

- Ralph Waldo Emerson

Huntington Arts Council invites artists to participate in "A Time For Reflection". Entries should focus on landscape works revolving around the theme of reflection and identity.

About the Juror: Barbara Applegate loves art and, like Ralph Waldo Emerson, knows that many artists respond to a special call to create works about the landscape. Ms. Applegate has taught Art History to college students over the last eighteen years and served LIU's Steinberg Museum of Art, as Coordinator and later Director, for more than twenty years. She seeks opportunities to engage viewers with works of art across all media.
