

Friday, June 24 – 8:00 PM Cyrille Aimee

Cyrille Aimée is a fabulously gifted French-Dominican vocalist and actress. Winner of the Montreux Jazz Festival's Vocal Competition, the Sarah Vaughn International Jazz Vocal Competition and finalist in the Thelonious Monk Vocal Competition, Aimée is—in the words of Will Friedwald of The Wall Street Journal—"one of the most promising jazz singers of her generation."

Improvisation is not just a technique for Grammy nominated artist Cyrille Aimée, it's a way of life. The acclaimed vocalist ventured from singing on street corners in Europe to dazzling audiences at the world's most prestigious jazz festivals; from sneaking out to sing in gypsy encampments in her native France to braving the notoriously tough audiences at New York's Apollo Theatre to being called a "rising star in the galaxy of jazz singers" by The New York Times. As an actress, Aimée co-starred with Bernadette Peters in a Stephen Sondheim tribute at New York's City Center which inspired her to dig deeper into Sondheim's repertoire, resulting in her 2019 album, Move On: A Sondheim Adventure.
