

Derry Shafer

Derry Shafer is a longtime Whitman lover and has been working at Walt Whitman Birthplace for two years. She has an MSW from Fordham University and works in the insurance world. In her current role at the Birthplace, she assists Curator Margaret Guardi with planning exhibits for the year and presenting lectures connecting Walt Whitman to topics of today.